

Project & Infrastructure Finance Awards Dinner

LatinFinance's Project & Infrastructure Finance Awards recognize the most impressive transactions and institutions in a field critical to Latin America's economic progress. The winners are decided by LatinFinance's editorial staff following an extensive selection process that involves reviewing information and pitches provided by market participants and analyzing data.

Incisive Coverage

The winners of the awards in each category will be revealed and analyzed in LatinFinance's IMF/World Bank Issue, published in September. In a dedicated section, we explore in detail the institutions that led the industry and the deals that defined the markets, examining what their structure and success suggests for the evolution of project and infrastructure finance in Latin America. The award categories include:

- Best Local Currency Financing
- Best Airport Financing
- Best Port Financing
- Best Road Financing
- Best Transport Financing
- Best Renewable Energy Financing
