

2ND LATIN AMERICA JAPAN INVESTORS FORUM

JUNE 1-2, 2016 | CONRAD | TOKYO, JAPAN

LatinFinance for the second year in a row gathered together business leaders, institutional investors, advisors, financiers and government officials from Japan and Latin America for a day of informative panel discussions, technical presentations and 1-1 meetings to identify investment opportunities and advance the process towards deal making and strengthening business relationships. Some of the important topics of discussion included: Opportunities in Latin American Debt Securities, Partnering and Investing in Latin American Infrastructure Projects, Syndicated Lending and Manufacturing in Latin America. Focused presentations were made on Peru's macroeconomic outlook & financial strategy and opportunities for investment in Honduran infrastructure and energy. Day 2 of the conference was dedicated to 1-1 business meetings.

"It was useful to make contacts with investors and clients that I would not otherwise have taken the initiative to meet"

Arthur Rubin, Nomura

"The well organized and productive debates provided different insights on several issues"

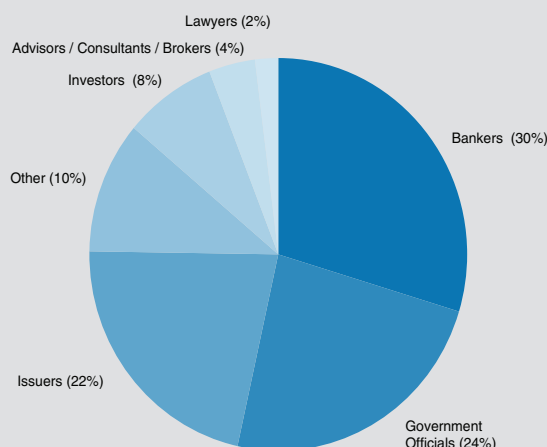

Claudio Konarzewski, Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi
